I have been working with Eagle Rock Sales Agency for almost a year. They have become a driving force for Full Circle International and have increased our customer base in the territory by 400%. Michael Maguire and Matthew Mensing are professional, diligent, and detail oriented. They have helped develop some of our core marketing strategies and opened some of our biggest accounts. Choosing to work with Eagle Rock Sales Agency has allowed me to set the standard to measure the rest of my Sales agencies by. You can be assured that you are getting the A team.
