To: Whom it may concern

I have had a business relationship with Michael Maguire and the Eaglerock Sales Corporation for more than seven years now. I have always found them to be very professional and very attentive to the needs of their customers. We purchase and re-sell 'Eaglerock' scaffolds and Falcon Ladder products through them. As with any product line we have handled, you occasionally have issues with shipping, damage or quality control, and I have found Michael to be one of the most responsive and accomodating sales representatives that I have ever dealt with in my forty plus years in the supply business. I would highly recomend him to any manufacturer and look forward to dealing with Michael and Eaglerock Sales for years to come.

Sincerely,
